

CONSUMER REPORT
DISCLOSURE AND AUTHORIZATION

As a condition for employment consideration with the above, a consumer report may be obtained about you which may contain criminal records, credit history, driving records, education, employment history, and any other required information. A consumer report may be obtained at any time during the application process or during your employment. The consumer report may be used in evaluating you for an employment position, promotion, or continued employment if you are hired.

As an applicant for employment, you have rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). If any information provided by a consumer report is used to adversely affect your employment consideration, you will be provided a copy of that report, the name of the consumer reporting agency, and a summary of your rights under the FCRA before a final hiring decision is made. You may also contact the Federal Trade Commission for information concerning your rights under the FCRA.

By signing below, I certify I have read and understand the above disclosure information that has been provided. I understand I have rights under the FCRA, and I hereby authorize Catholic Charities to obtain a consumer report on me for employment purposes.
